

Kim Martin Delivers California Country with 'Old Southern Soul'

New EP out Now

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Los Angeles, California – Jan 2, 2017- The first country artist to be sponsored by Chromacast Music Gear, Kim Martin is proving that location doesn't matter when it comes to delivering great country music. A Berklee College of Music graduate and seasoned performer, Kim Martin is firing on all cylinders when it comes to her 2017 EP, Old Southern Soul, on her label Bellavicious Records. Produced/Mixed by Hank Linderman (Eagles, Chicago).

Old Southern Soul is the culmination of genuine heart with a fresh outlook on the country scene. It's got that chilled California vibe intertwined with the grit of Southern rock. The EP consists of 5 finely crafted songs Kim wrote, showcasing her incredible vocal range, bass playing, larger than life lyrics; and vivacious story telling. The video for the title track, Old Southern Soul has just been released and is hot! It's just one of five tracks on the EP that deliver.

*"At times throughout this EP it was kind of a little Gretchen Wilson with a whole lot more of punches & kicks"-

Kim's lifelong passion is music. Writing, sharing and performing it is what drives her and moves her soul. She has an intense work ethic as a fulltime musician, band leader, and recording artist, focusing now on growing and expanding her fan-base. Kim and her band are ready to take it to the next level with festivals, touring. Seeking booking agents/management.

In between recording and writing she is playing over 200 gigs a year and is a favorite at The Costa Mesa Speedway for the singing the National Anthem.

In July 2017, she enjoyed a week residency as a vocalist with Kevin Eubank's Band (The Tonight Show) at The MGM Grand Arena, Las Vegas for Microsoft in July 2017.

December 2017, Kim and her band were featured on KVCR PBS TV Show Musicology. Spotighting artists in the Inland Empire of Southern California.

Old Southern Soul is available now. Those interested in reviewing the album or adding it to their playlists can get in touch via the information. That also goes for those interested in interviewing Kim Martin about her time at Berklee, her 2017 Vegas residency, her debut EP, New Music Video and more below
